SYNTHETIC REGULATORY CIRCULAR

Circular No. SYN/REG/2026-27/031

Date: 12 August 2026
To: All Reporting Entities
Subject: Suspicious Transaction Reporting - Timelines and Quality Standards

1. Background

FIU-IND has observed delays in the filing of STRs and a high rate of reports with inadequate narratives.

2. Directions

(a) STRs shall be filed within 7 working days from the date the Principal Officer concludes that the transaction is suspicious. (b) The narrative section must contain: the red-flag indicators, the customer profile, the transaction timeline, the amounts and counterparties involved, and the rationale for suspicion. (c) Where an STR is filed on an attempted transaction, the reason for non-completion must be stated.

3. Internal Timelines

The time from alert generation to the Principal Officer's decision shall not exceed 30 calendar days. Alerts exceeding this limit shall be reported to the Audit Committee in the next quarterly meeting.

Issued for training purposes. Not an actual regulatory circular.
